

euronews.

2021 VOD Catalogue

Euronews' VOD catalogue gives partners an exclusive access to its extensive offer of premium content, covering specific topics from travel to culture, technology to lifestyle, green news and business.

All episodes are available in 12 different languages - English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Greek, Hungarian, Russian, Arabic, Persian and Turkish.

Themes

TRAVEL

Explore covers topics as diverse as culture, heritage, cuisine, sports and lifestyle. Explore is a melting pot of experiences, an eye opener on the world.

p 4-6

Get snapshots of hidden or forgotten attractions, a fresh look at famous world-class landmarks as well as practical tips with our interactive map and "traveller's diary".

p 7-8

Euronews Travel's first original YouTube series, Rerouted: Balkans, takes you on a unique trip to discover a spectacular range of cultures, customs and lifestyles, and introduce you to the people who preserve them. This content series is currently only available on digital.

p 9

This Euronews Travel series brings you inspiring stories of some of the world's most trailblazing solo female travellers. These women have set out in the world in pursuit of the most unique experiences, and a lifestyle that many would dream of. This content series is currently only available in a vertical format and on digital.

p 10-11

EXPLORE

EXPLORE

Duration: 5 minutes

Frequency: Occasional

Languages: Arabic, English, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Persian, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Turkish

07/04/2021

The source of the Okavango wilderness: Angola's untapped territory teeming with biodiversity

A crew of National Geographic scientists, explorers and filmmakers made it their mission to traverse the many Angolan rivers that supply water to Botswana's world-famous Okavango Delta. Here's what they discovered...

03/03/2021

Luanda: The best catch capital

Angola's 1600 kilometres of coast is home to great fishing and famous record breaking sport fishing world champions. Explore Angola delves into these rich waters to find out more.

24/02/2021

Why 4x4 travel is the best way to discover Angola

Take a trip with a group of 4x4 enthusiasts to discover Angola's breathtaking beauty and varied landscapes on this episode of Explore Angola.

09/02/2021

Check out these video clips of the snow in Europe right now

Snow has covered Europe in the past few days. Here are some of the best views.

EXPLORE

28/01/2021

Tokyo: Japan's city garden

In this edition of Transforming Tokyo, we look at how nature projects are turning Japan's capital into a city full of rooftop gardens, parks and green zones.

23/12/2020

How a clash of cultures after World War II transformed Tokyo's Harajuku district

Explore Harajuku and the trendy Takeshita Street with its "Kawaii" fashion stores and, away from the hustle and bustle of shopping streets, discover the historic landmarks like the Meiji shrine and the peaceful Yoyogi park.

14/12/2020

Explore deluxe Dubai, an emirate scaling the height of luxury

Home to award-winning hotels topped with helipads, malls filled with designer boutiques and marinas lined with super yachts, Dubai is a beacon for high earners looking for the height of luxury.

07/12/2020

Exploring Saint-Petersburg's rich history and modern charms

Discovering the rich history and modern charms of Saint-Petersburg - in this week's Explore on Euronews.

30/11/2020

Dubai's desert camping escape

In this episode of Explore, the team check out the first self-drive camping adventure in the Dubai Desert Conservation Reserve.

12/10/2020

Burning off the calories at minus 120 degrees - my brush with cryotherapy in Dubai

Dubai is a city focused on R&R and wellbeing.

— EXPLORE —

05/10/2020

Trail of Two Oceans - a glorious, unique trip across Africa to Angola

Our team were lucky enough to board the very first passenger train that crossed Africa from East to West, from Tanzania to Angola.

01/10/2020

Exploring Dubai's iconic coastline by boat

In this week's episode of Explore, Euronews goes on a journey of discovery along Dubai's 72 nautical mile coastline.

14/07/2020

Dubai: Discover the jewels in the crown of the city's civilisation

Archaeologists have unearthed a series of exciting and mysterious discoveries across the Emirate.

11/03/2020

Markets, coffee and street art: discovering Zagreb's secret delights

Euronews takes a tour of the Croatian capital to amply some of the delights that are attracting scores of tourists to the southern European city.

Postcards

POSTCARDS

Duration: 2 minutes

Frequency: Occasional

Languages: Arabic, English, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Persian, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Turkish

05/03/2021

Why Moscow is the perfect city for a winter break

Moscow in winter has a special charm. There are plenty of sights and activities to explore, from skating in Europe's largest ice rink to discovering the palaces and parks of times gone by.

21/10/2020

Dynamic new destination Dubai Future District is a place that mixes business with pleasure

A new business hub is forming in the heart of Dubai — but trade isn't the only reason to visit Dubai Future District.

21/08/2020

Thermal springs and mud therapy on Bulgaria's Black Sea coast

On this episode of Postcards, Euronews takes in the waters of Bulgaria's Varna region along the Black Sea coast.

14/08/2020

Tsarevets Fortress: The City of the Tsars

On this episode of Postcards, Euronews is in Veliko Tarnovo, the former capital of Bulgaria and home to a real national treasure: Tsarevets Fortress.

Postcards

07/08/2020

Vitosha Mountain: Bulgaria's year-round nature escape

This week on Postcards, Euronews visits Bulgaria's capital, Sofia, at the foot of Vitosha Mountain, a stunning green expanse on the outskirts of the city.

31/07/2020

Discover the supersized attractions of Downtown Dubai, starting with the world's tallest building

Downtown Dubai's ample attractions include a 10-million litre aquarium, an Olympic-sized ice rink and the world's tallest building.

22/07/2020

Why visitors are hooked on Dubai Marina, home to luxury yachts, docks, hotels and beach clubs

Dubai Marina is a spectacle of ground-breaking architecture, bespoke superyachts and luxury shoreline hospitality.

18/06/2020

La Mer: Dubai's bohemian beachfront

Postcards heads down to La Mer, Dubai's newest beachfront development to check out the vintage-style beach huts, water sports, restaurants, bars, fashion stores and street art.

14/04/2020

An inside guide to Al Quoz, Dubai's leading art hub

Once just an overlooked industrial estate hidden behind the high-rises of Dubai's Sheikh Zayed Road, Al Quoz is now the beating heart of the city's art scene.

REROUTED

THE BALKANS

WITH EVA ZU BECK

REROUTED: THE BALKANS

Duration: 10 minutes
Frequency: Occasional
Languages: English

This content series is currently only available on digital.

29/04/2021

Welcome to the family vineyard that survived two world wars

This week, Eva continues her journey through Serbia towards a vineyard that has stood the test of time.

22/04/2021

This is the world's most expensive cheese and you won't believe what it's made from

This week, Eva explores Serbia, a country full of stunning landscapes, friendly people and, as she finds out in this episode, entrepreneurial types who dreamed up milking donkeys.

15/04/2021

Bagpiping in Bulgaria and how to make the most of a trip to the mountainous Smolyan region

When you hear the distinctive drone of a bagpipe you may think of Scotland, but the instrument is also one of the most distinctive symbols of folklore music in the Balkans.

08/04/2021

What is Kukeri? Explore the amazing Bulgarian tradition that scares bad spirits away

In this episode, Rerouted discovers a centuries old Bulgarian tradition where people dance in the streets with scary masks, animal skins and loud bells.

WOMEN BEYOND BORDERS

Duration: 5 minutes

Frequency: Occasional

Languages: English

This content series is currently only available in a vertical format and on digital.

17/12/2020

Visit quieter corners of the world with this solo female influencer

Eva has been travelling for three years, documenting her journeys across YouTube and Instagram. One of her key focusses is exploring lesser visited parts of the world.

10/12/2020

This travel journalist lived out of a backpack for three years

It's been three and a half years since Jess Vincent, a digital nomad and travel journalist, packed a bag, uprooted her office job lifestyle and bought a one way ticket to Cuba.

03/12/2020

Meet Wandering Kanya: Digital nomad, spiritualist and truth seeker

Kanya Buch, a self-professed truth seeker, uses her platform to help people find their spiritual journey - as well as to inspire their physical one.

26/11/2020

Women Beyond Borders: the Red Sea citizen

Nouf Alosaimi fell in love with scuba diving in Egypt and has since built an all-female diving community to empower Saudi women to get involved with scuba diving.

19/11/2020

Meet the first woman from Oman to climb Mount Everest

It was May 2019 when Nadhira Alharthy reached the top of the world.

12/11/2020

Meet Liz Warner: the woman who's running her world

When Liz Warner decided to run 30 marathons in 30 countries before her 30th birthday, she wanted to empower runners to change the world by connecting with the places they run.

05/11/2020

Women Beyond Borders: travelling the world on horseback

Since she was a young child, Krystal Kelly - or the Equestrian Adventuress - has had two great passions: horses and travel.

29/10/2020

Meet Crystal and Jazmyn: the couple travelling the world in a van - Women beyond borders

For 26-year-old Jazmyn Canning, and 25-year-old Crystal Drinkwalter, travelling wasn't always on the agenda. Both had full time jobs, saving up holiday time so they could travel whenever possible.

22/10/2020

Meet Anna McNuff: the woman who is running her way around the world

Self-professed mischief maker and adventurer Anna McNuff has inspired a generation of fitness lovers with her unique travelling style - running and cycling across countries around the world.

15/10/2020

Meet Jessica Nabongo: the first black woman to travel to every country on the planet

By the time Jessica had turned 35, she had travelled to all 195 countries on this planet. If you think that's an exclusive club, there's more: she is the first black woman to do so.

TECH / SCIENCE

Business Planet conveys the entrepreneurial stories of the most vibrant, successful and innovative small businesses across Europe.

p 13-16

The Futuris program offers the latest news on technical and scientific research projects across Europe in a series of small video episodes and web reports. The last episode aired in December 2020.

p 17-22

Sci-tech covers the major technology and innovation shows around the world, bringing you breaking trends from the frontiers of scientific endeavours and more.

p 23-25

Business PLANET

BUSINESS PLANET

Duration: 3 minutes

Frequency: Weekly

Languages: Arabic, English, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Persian, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Turkish

02/04/2021

Functional fashion for wheelchair users: the social enterprise doing good business

Business Planet heads to Slovenia to see why one startup is not only out to make money it is also on a mission to make a difference.

12/03/2021

Smart solution: how business clusters drive innovation

Business Planet heads to Iasi in Romania to see how one tech company got its pharmacy app off the ground thanks to being part of a cluster.

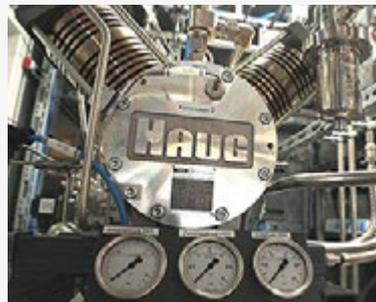

19/02/2021

The coffee company embracing tech to brew success

Business Planet heads to the Danish city of Aarhus to see why one coffee company has made green and digital transformation a top priority in its bid to improve productivity.

29/01/2021

Green economy: powering up hydrogen

Business Planet heads to Germany to discover how one firm's hydrogen technology could bridge the gap in the quest for clean energy.

Business PLANET

08/01/2021

Protecting creativity: keeping the copycats paws off your company's assets

Business planet takes a look at how EU firms can protect their intellectual property from copycats, both home and abroad.

08/01/2021

Safeguarding ideas: "not enough companies take it seriously"

Business Planet meets the man trying to protect EU companies from the IP copycats.

07/01/2021

Green future: how will Europe power its low-carbon economy?

Business Planet looks at the EU's strategic plan to secure the critical raw materials that will be vital for green and digital technologies.

18/12/2020

The core ores vital for a green future

Business Planet heads to Greece to find out what Europe is doing to secure the finite resources that will be critical for high-tech and the renewable energy revolution.

27/11/2020

Bouncing back after business failure

Business Planet heads to Brittany, France, to see how one baker is making dough again after he was forced to close his boulangerie in Paris.

24/11/2020

Europe's Circular Economy Action Plan

Business Planet takes a look at Europe's plan for a Circular Economy and examines what transition might mean for both businesses and consumers.

Business PLANET

06/11/2020

Circular economy: reshaping Europe's textile industry

Business Planet heads to Italy to see how an innovative project is attempting to boost Europe's circular economy.

16/10/2020

The entrepreneurial exchange that builds business success

Business Planet heads to Belgium to see how one entrepreneur has built a stable company thanks to the skills she learnt through a unique European exchange programme.

15/10/2020

14:25	Amsterdam	KL 1775	Disembarked 14:25
14:40	Antalya	TD 3202	Delayed 15:11
14:45	Frankfurt	LH 1012	Disembarked 14:55
14:53	Essenfurt	FB 6715	Cancelled
14:00	Madrid	SN 3722	Cancelled
15:15	Tokyo NRT	HL 251	Disembarked 14:42
15:30	Riga	HR 3100	Cancelled
15:35	London LHR	BA 800	Cancelled
15:45	Barcelona	IB 2972	Cancelled
15:55	Malaga	5N 4746	Estimated 15:20
16:15	Faro	5N 5802	Cancelled
16:30	Casablanca	AT 832	Cancelled
16:40	Moscow SVO	SJ 7678	Daily 16:30
16:45	Alicante	5N 7444	Cancelled

Explainer: Europe's tourism rescue plan

The European Commission has allocated over 150 billion euros to ensure the stability of the industry, especially small and medium-sized businesses.

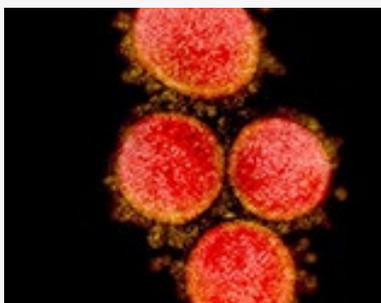

25/09/2020

Rethinking tourism after COVID-19

Business Planet takes a look at Europe's travel and tourism sector, to find out what the EU is doing to help and ask how the sector moves forward.

10/09/2020

COVID-19 tests are key to stop the pandemic: How do they work? And how can you get one?

In the race to get a handle on the pandemic, a number of tests are now in use around the world. But how do they work?

04/09/2020

When contacts count: the network boosting small business

Business Planet travels to Madrid to see how the world's biggest support network for SMEs is supporting firms during the COVID-19 crisis.

08/05/2020

Europe deploys space tech in fight against COVID-19

Business Planet looks at how Europe is harnessing space-based technologies to help in the fight against the COVID-19 pandemic.

24/04/2020

What challenges are entrepreneurs faced with during the COVID-19 pandemic?

This week, we introduce you to a brand new European funding model for entrepreneurs, particularly useful in the context of COVID-19.

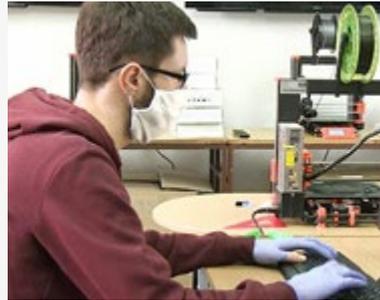

10/04/2020

Europe's industrial clusters mobilise to fight coronavirus

The Business Planet team is mobilized to help you better understand how entrepreneurs are facing the coronavirus epidemic.

30/03/2020

What measures have been put in place to help Europe's 25 million SMEs during the coronavirus crisis?

In this special episode of Business Planet, we look at what measures have been put in place to support small and medium-sized enterprises.

26/03/2020

How are European businesses adapting to the coronavirus pandemic?

The Business Planet team is mobilized to help you better understand how entrepreneurs are coping with the coronavirus epidemic.

FUTURIS

FUTURIS

Duration: 4 minutes

Languages: Arabic, English, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Persian, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Turkish

The last episode aired in December 2020.

07/12/2020

Researchers regenerate underwater biodiversity destroyed by human activity

The EU's Horizon Europe Initiative looks at ways in which it can protect our seas and oceans. The goal: Protect 30% of our aquatic surface by 2030.

30/11/2020

How robots are giving Europe's construction industry a boost

In this episode of Futuris, Euronews finds out how the importance of the sector has prompted research into making it even more competitive.

23/11/2020

New breast cancer therapy promises to destroy tumours inside the body

A prize-winning breast cancer therapy developed in Poland promises to destroy tumours inside the body, avoiding the need for painful surgery.

16/11/2020

How migration data is being used to create new opportunities

In this episode of Futuris, Euronews finds out how researchers are developing such data to create new opportunities.

FUTURIS

09/11/2020

Europe's mission against cancer - working to improve patient care

Futuris investigates the network of teams across Europe working to make this happen.

02/11/2020

Preventing food fraud: Europe's battle against the spice pirates

Futuris visits the labs in the Netherlands doing just that as part of an EU project.

26/10/2020

Nestore, the new personal coach to keep you fit in mind, body and soul

The New Nestore system aims to monitor multiple aspects of the user's lifestyle.

19/10/2020

Climate change affects our health: how can society adapt?

Futuris travelled to Norway and Greece to see how a European project is attempting to develop strategies to adapt to the worst effects of a warming world.

12/10/2020

REFRESH - the EU project aimed at drastically reducing food waste

Futuris has been investigating the current strides being taken toward creating that joined-up system and helping reduce food waste.

05/10/2020

The BARBARA Project - transforming food by-products into useful raw materials

Can food waste by-products be re-used to produce car parts and other industrial items, purposes unimaginable just a few years ago ?

FUTURIS

28/09/2020

Technology helping to preserve Europe's cultural heritage

In this week's episode of Futuris, Euronews finds out more about this project and how technology is helping to engage the younger generation with heritage crafts of the past.

21/09/2020

On a mission to save our soils - the EU's plan to rebuild the land

In this special edition of Futuris, we look at one of the missions that the European Union is launching to find solutions to the main challenges of our time.

14/09/2020

'Virus hunters' explore Iceland's geothermal hot springs for solutions

In this week's episode of Futuris, Euronews travelled to Iceland to see how researchers are hunting down viruses - and exploring their potential uses as part of a project called Virus-X.

07/09/2020

How the EU is trying to make one hundred cities carbon neutral by 2030

In this week's special edition of Futuris on Euronews, we look at what is being done to reach that target.

31/08/2020

The new technology innovations to expand geothermal energy use in Europe

There are currently around 130 geothermal power stations operating in Europe, a 5% increase compared to 2019. That number could double in the next five to eight years.

24/08/2020

Virtual humans to map the future of major surgery

A group of researchers have been working on a kind of digital doppelgänger- and believe that the virtual humans they are building could end up revolutionising healthcare.

FUTURIS

27/07/2020

Europe's 2050 'Green Deal' plans boosted by radical innovation

As Europe sets itself the goal of becoming the first climate-neutral continent, there will be changes to where we live, the food we eat and how we get around.

20/07/2020

How the UNalab Smart Cities project is regreening overheated Eindhoven

Many of our European cities have become more and more crowded, with lots of green spaces replaced by concrete.

13/07/2020

Can supercomputers help find a COVID-19 treatment?

Futuris finds out how biomolecular simulation, a combination of biology and computer science, is helping to better understand diseases like Covid-19.

06/07/2020

The science behind reliable COVID-19 testing

Futuris looks at what scientists are doing to make sure coronavirus diagnostic tests are efficient and don't produce false negatives.

29/06/2020

The European projects pooling data to defeat COVID-19

Futuris travels to Marseille and Cambridge to look at two European projects pooling and sharing data to help the scientific community beat COVID-19.

22/06/2020

Virology and physics join forces to beat COVID-19

Futuris explores how researchers are using tools from the field of physics and other scientific disciplines to help better understand COVID-19.

FUTURIS

15/06/2020

Artificial Intelligence: how man and machine are progressively working as one

Futuris looks at how the relationship between man and machine in modern manufacturing is evolving through the adoption of Artificial Intelligence and automation.

08/06/2020

COVID-19: Could AI and supercomputers unlock the pathogen puzzle?

Futuris looks at how Artificial Intelligence and High Performance Computing are helping in the fight against COVID-19.

01/06/2020

Podastic! The ICU device safely transporting COVID-19 patients

Futuris looks at a new Norwegian medical device that can safely transport patients with highly infectious diseases such as Ebola and COVID-19.

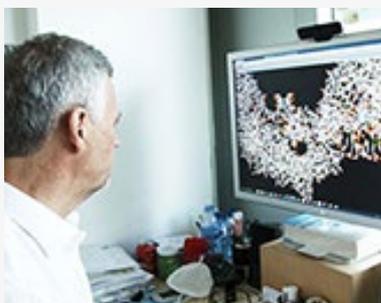

25/05/2020

Powerful properties: how tobacco is being used to fight COVID-19

Futuris takes a look at how scientists in Spain are using tobacco and molecular farming to help create tailor-made vaccines and antibodies.

18/05/2020

Engineering bacteria to defeat disease

Futuris investigates how scientists are treating respiratory disease with synthetic vaccines developed from bacteria.

11/05/2020

Europe super-charges research in the battle against COVID-19

In this episode of Futuris the team examine what Europe is doing to boost funding for research and innovation in the fight against COVID-19.

FUTURIS

06/04/2020

The new AI system safeguarding premature babies from infection

Researchers in Rennes are developing a new digital system to detect infections in premature babies and help safeguard them.

30/03/2020

How can we balance urbanisation with protecting the environment and quality of life?

By 2050 around 80% of the world's population will be living in urban areas.

23/03/2020

Smart farming: how technology is improving animal welfare and efficiency in agriculture

In the Péloponnèse region of southern Greece, some of the olive trees are a hundred years old and have been farmed via tried and tested methods over the decades.

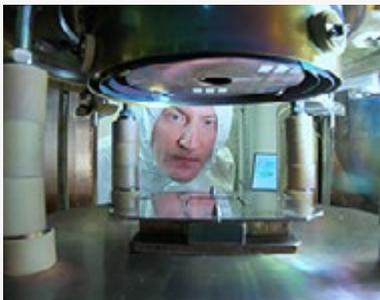

16/03/2020

Capturing CO2: How to reduce carbon dioxide emissions from the cement industry

Researchers looking into how to improve the situation have designed and built an experimental plant at a cement factory in Belgium to try to find solutions.

09/03/2020

How EU funding is changing the face of Latvian innovation

At the University of Latvia in Riga, the face of innovation is drastically changing.

sci-tech

SCI-TECH

Duration: 5 minutes

Frequency: Occasional

Languages: Arabic, English, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Persian, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Turkish

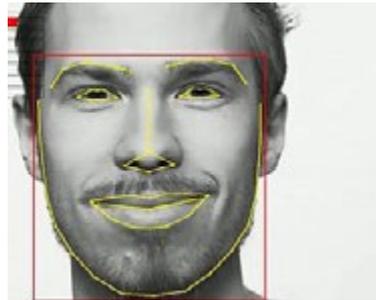

12/04/2021

How much electricity can the world's biggest single-site solar park produce?

It's the world's largest single-site solar park, equipped with millions of photovoltaic panels capable of converting the sun's rays to about 1000 MegaWatts hourly. Check out the Mohammed Bin Rashid Solar Park in Dubai.

31/03/2021

This is how Dubai startups are training AI to be more human and unbiased

As global dependence on digital technology grows rapidly, brands explore how they can reach consumers better with more humanised technology, and Dubai startups train AI with what they call ethical data to gain the trust of its users.

18/01/2021

Japan's human-centred smart cities enhancing well-being

Japan is rapidly understanding the opportunities that smart cities can provide to help an aging population and to enhance general well-being. We take a look at two Japanese smart towns and their different solution-oriented smart projects.

19/12/2020

Humans and robots battle it out for control of the future

From bioengineering and gene editing to cybersecurity, 5G, and much more, the future is very much under the spotlight at the 40th annual Gulf Information Technology Exhibition in Dubai.

sci-tech

05/11/2020

How Virtual Reality is transforming sectors from education to architecture

Immersive technologies are blurring the boundaries between the virtual and physical worlds.

04/10/2020

Total: Using biomimicry for cleaner water

On oil and gas producing platforms, produced water is also extracted with crude oil or used to bring it to the surface.

02/10/2020

Cutting carbon emissions and power costs in Southeast Asia

In Southeast Asia alone, energy consumption is expected to double by 2040.

25/09/2020

Smarter than the average home - how technology is aiding assisted living

Researchers based in the western Greek city of Patras are now taking artificial intelligence into our dwellings, to revolutionise our homes - and make them smart.

18/09/2020

Smart farming: a revolution for traditional olive production on Crete

Agriculture, including olive farming, currently consumes 85% of Crete's freshwater supply. The idea of using smart technology is to substantially cut any waste.

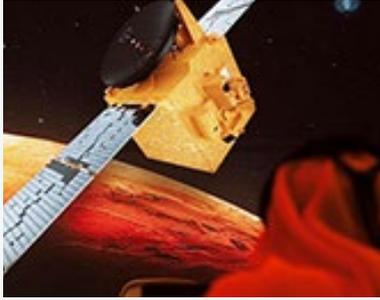

27/08/2020

How Artificial Intelligence at Dubai's 'AI Everything' is combating COVID-19

What solutions can artificial intelligence offer us in the wake of the current COVID-19 global pandemic?

23/07/2020

The Hope Probe: the Arab world's first interplanetary mission

The Emirates' Mars Mission is the first interplanetary mission to emerge from the Arab world; an historic moment for all those involved.

16/07/2020

Huawei DigiTrucks - a driving force for digital literacy

Half the planet's population still does not have internet access.

15/07/2020

Cyber Polygon looks at ways to forge a secure digital future

The outbreak of the Covid-19 pandemic caused an irrevocable shift in working practices around the globe.

26/06/2020

Innovating out of lockdown

As widespread lockdowns were enforced, the UAE began rolling out innovative technological solutions.

10/03/2020

How Mars might hold the key to better understanding climate change

The Emirates has its gaze firmly fixed on Mars. And the culmination of all their efforts is the Hope Probe which is destined to orbit the red planet.

Inspire Africa explores Africa's rising potential and delivers uplifting stories of millions of women, men and major players who innovate and drive growth on the continent. The last episode aired in May 2020.

p 27-29

Inspire Middle East showcases new voices, cutting-edge innovation & vibrant storytelling from across the business and cultural spectrum, connecting people in the MENA region around the world. The last episode aired in December 2020.

p 30-34

Euronews' sizzling culinary experience which explores a colorful range of gastronomic and culinary adventures around the globe.

p 35-36

INSPIRE

Africa

INSPIRE AFRICA

Duration: 10 minutes
Languages: English, French
 The last episode aired in May 2020.

27/05/2020

Cultural showcase, Media for the deaf, and Anti Covid-19 comedy

Though the world is affected by the coronavirus pandemic, inspiring stories still abound all around us.

18/11/2019

Young Nigerians embracing savings and investment

Inspire Africa heads to Lagos to understand the newfound interest by young Nigerians in digital financial services.

28/10/2019

Start Lab, hub for Congo's young entrepreneurs

Find out more about Start Lab, a private incubator that hosts innovative start-ups in different sectors.

15/10/2019

Congo's fashion and make up fiesta

Discover the best of African fashion in Congo.

INSPIRE

Africa

30/09/2019

NBA jnr league basketball takes off in Morocco

Find out more about the jnr. NBA program and OCP group.

16/09/2019

Reforestation in Ivory Coast through seedballs

Inspire Africa met up with Sarah Traboulsi an Ivorian entrepreneur with a vision for reforestation in her country's environment.

12/08/2019

From chalkboard drawing of Ms Word to real computers

Inspire Africa met up with a school teacher in Ghana after Microsoft gave away laptops to further the students' education.

30/07/2019

Spike in use of sport bikes in Cameroon

Inspire Africa heads to Cameroon to understand the rise of the use of sport bikes.

13/07/2019

Recycling fish waste into leather

Inspire Africa heads to Morocco to see how one company gives second life to fish waste.

24/06/2019

Madagascar's last erotic sculptor

This edition of Inspire Africa explores the erotic funerary art amongst the Sakalava people in Madagascar.

INSPIRE

Africa

09/06/2019

Young Nigerian graduate supporting Boko Haram victims

INSPIRE WADI, A REFUGE FOR VICTIMS OF TERRORISM

Inspire Africa heads to Nigeria to meet with Wadi Ben Hirki, a young woman who has chosen to make a difference in the lives of children and women.

20/05/2019

Shifting careers: From banking to making pancakes

In this edition of Inspire Africa, an Ivorian entrepreneur who owns several pastry shops in Abidjan shares his tips to successfully changing careers and sustaining a business.

17/05/2019

Revolutionising storytelling in Mozambique

INSPIRE YAOUNDE'S FIRST E-WASTE TREATMENT

This episode of Inspire Africa explores how storytelling and performing arts are shifting gears in Mozambique.

07/05/2019

Sustainable dairy products made in Mali

INSPIRE SUSTAINABLE DAIRY PRODUCTS MADE

Inspire Africa is in Mali to find out more about the young entrepreneur creating a sustainable ecosystem for herders and farmers in his country.

INSPIRE

— Middle East —

INSPIRE MIDDLE EAST

Duration: 12 minutes

Languages: English, French

The last episode aired in December 2020.

04/12/2020

What does the UAE's art and cultural scene look like post COVID-19?

Vibrant, diverse, and plentiful are a few words that describe the UAE's culture and art scene, which also serves as a hub for regional creatives stemming from the Middle East and North Africa to share their work, before the pandemic.

27/11/2020

How is the Abu Dhabi Investment Office supporting startups and attracting foreign businesses?

In its October World Economic Outlook report, the International Monetary Fund projected a 6.6% contraction in the UAE's growth this year.

20/11/2020

How are political cartoonists in the MENA region drawing attention to social issues?

The lot of political cartoonists in the Middle East & North Africa region is not an easy one.

13/11/2020

Property mogul & reality TV star Mohamed Hadid talks cookbooks & kibbeh in lockdown

The global pandemic has triggered a boom in reading, according to the president of the International Publishers Association.

INSPIRE

— Middle East —

30/10/2020

Views from a rabbi, a priest & an imam on the Abrahamic house being built in Abu Dhabi

Religious history was made in Abu Dhabi last year, when the Document on Human Fraternity was signed in February by Pope Francis and Dr. Ahmed Al Tayeb, the Grand Imam of Al-Azhar.

23/10/2020

Emirati henna artist launches natural henna brand & rolls out 'risqué' designs

Whilst the art form of henna may be thousands of years old, just like any fashionable trend it has taken many a stylish twist and turn down the years.

16/10/2020

UAE-based celebrity couturier Michael Cinco pivots to protective clothing during pandemic

Shopping for high-end apparel & accessories fell out of fashion when the COVID-19 pandemic struck.

09/10/2020

UAE sees steady rise in pets repatriated & rehomed during COVID-19 pandemic

Many animal shelters in the UAE have seen an influx of creatures since the COVID-19 pandemic took hold.

02/10/2020

Is natural gas the MENA region's 'new oil' following recent UAE discoveries?

The United Arab Emirates is continuing to diversify its economy & energy resources away from oil, by investing in natural gas and renewables.

25/09/2020

UAE's market leading property developer Aldar, upbeat about real estate market recovery

According to property advisory & investment firm, Jones Lang LaSalle, commercial investments worldwide fell nearly 30% to $321 billion in the first 6 months of this year, compared to 2019.

INSPIRE

— Middle East —

18/09/2020

UAE aerospace manufacturer Strata pivots from plane parts to mask production during pandemic

The key to its survival is digitizing and modernizing, so said executives at the Global Manufacturing & Industrialization Summit 2020 this September.

11/09/2020

The UAE's sustainable food plan involves growing rice & developing 'soil'

With the UAE almost wholly reliant on food imports, food security is a national priority.

04/09/2020

UAE's Barakah Nuclear Energy Plant connects to national grid & accelerates power plans

The UAE is changing the way it powers its future growth.

28/08/2020

Could inland fish farms ease the UAE's depleted fish stocks?

Given that the fish commonly breed and thrive in the colder waters of the Atlantic and Pacific, their homegrown presence in the UAE is something of a novelty.

31/07/2020

Why is Bollywood star Priyanka Chopra Jonas considering learning Arabic?

In recent years, Time magazine named her one of the 100 Most Influential People in the World, whilst Forbes listed her amongst the World's 100 Most Powerful Women.

24/07/2020

How might the next invention by battery anode creator Rachid Yazami change your life?

Moroccan scientist, Professor Rachid Yazami's passion for science started as a child, in his native Fez, with a fascination for geology.

INSPIRE

— Middle East —

17/07/2020

How is the UAE participating in the global effort to cure COVID-19?

Since the first case of COVID-19 in the UAE, in late January, the country has led a swift response to the novel coronavirus pandemic.

10/07/2020

Global startup queen Joy Ajlouny reveals how entrepreneurs can make their millions

Dubai-based serial entrepreneur, Joy Ajlouny, is a self-proclaimed 'bull in a china shop'.

03/07/2020

Why does Emirati entrepreneur Sara Al Madani say no to female empowerment & yes to failure?

From a very early age, Emirati entrepreneur Dr. Sara Al Madani believed her ideas could turn a tidy profit.

26/06/2020

How has Caracalla Dance Theatre influenced culture in the Middle East?

Lebanese-born Abdel-Halim Caracalla created the Caracalla Dance Theatre during an era when pursuing a career in the expressive arts was not the norm.

19/06/2020

Why might UAE university applications spike in the wake of global pandemic?

The UAE's e-learning programme will come to an end with the resumption of the academic year on August 30, according to the Ministry of Education.

12/06/2020

What will prompt Gulf energy companies to merge post-pandemic?

Worldwide lockdowns, shrinking demand and a supply glut have sent shockwaves through the oil & gas sector, plus oil-reliant economies in the Middle East.

INSPIRE

— Middle East —

05/06/2020

UAE authorities tackle rising cybercrime during COVID-19 pandemic

Big Data, blockchain and the Internet of things (IoT) have positively disrupted many Middle East and North African societies, economies and industries in recent years.

22/05/2020

How are UAE initiatives helping low-income families amidst pandemic?

Charitable initiatives have been launched at the federal level of government in the United Arab Emirates, to support the population of 9.6 million people during the COVID-19 pandemic.

15/05/2020

Meditation & daily naps, one entrepreneur's tips for remote working in the UAE

A Gallup poll of recent years, suggests that only around 15% of the world's full-time workers are truly engaged.

08/05/2020

Outspoken Libyan princess Alia Al Senussi supports 'New Saudi' art scene

As a Libyan princess raised in exile, Alia Al Senussi, has never let her family's ousting from the throne and their homeland in the 1960s, define her.

01/05/2020

How to make money in a pandemic: Buy 'stay-at-home' stocks?

During this unique time in history, some stock market analysts believe that the COVID-19 pandemic has the potential to change the investment landscape forever.

24/04/2020

How are MENA athletes reacting to the delay of the 2020 Tokyo Olympics?

For the first time in its 124-year history, the Olympic Games have been delayed due to the coronavirus pandemic.

Taste

TASTE

Duration: 3 minutes
Frequency: Occasional
Languages: Arabic, English, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Persian, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Turkish

15/04/2021

Chef Himanshu Saini's khichuri takes diners on a culinary tour of India

Chef Himanshu Saini crafts modern Indian tasting menus using French techniques, hence the port-manteau Trèsind - 'très', the French for 'very', and 'Ind', an abbreviation of Indian.

29/03/2021

The third-wave coffee craze is brewing in Dubai

There's something brewing in Dubai. Rich, often chocolatey and occasionally fruity, artisanal coffee is causing a stir in the emirate.

21/12/2020

Baking in a 'sub zero' oven with Dubai Chef Gregoire Berger

Subzero oven - The creation of ice cream using nitrogen.

10/11/2020

'Kosh-Armani' Cuisine: Dubai opens its very first kosher restaurant in the world's tallest structure

Closer ties between the United Arab Emirates and Israel mean that Dubai is set to see an influx of Jewish visitors.

Taste

04/09/2020

Dining in the Dubai desert and cooking beneath the sand

In this episode of Taste, Euronews heads to the Dubai desert to sample and discover a Bedouin dish cooked beneath the sand.

24/06/2020

Shanghai Me - A taste of 1930's China

Taste finds out why this fine-dining restaurant has been voted one of the best in the gulf region.

05/05/2020

A quintessential quarantine dish

Euronews' meets up with Chef Reif at his Japanese restaurant, Kushiyaki, to watch him cook a quintessential quarantine dish.

31/01/2020

Camel milk chocolate: Moving from the desert to the dessert table

In this edition of Taste, we take a look at the increasing popularity of camel milk.

WORLD

During Focus, an event or current affairs issue is put under the spotlight for an in-depth analysis.

p 38-39

The Global Conversation is a platform on which Euronews questions high profile guests, from Heads of State to policy-makers about politics, business and culture in Europe.

p 40-45

Spotlight shines a light on a number of different interweaving themes in the field of culture, politics, tourism and environment in a series of reports related to a particular country.

p 46-47

Unreported Europe brings you the unfiltered stories and the reality of those who make up Europe, be they workers, farmers, politicians, business owners, activists or refugees. No stone is left unturned, no corner unexplored.

p 48-55

FOCUS

FOCUS

Duration: 5 minutes

Frequency: Occasional

Languages: Arabic, English, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Persian, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Turkish

07/04/2021

Watches and Wonders 2021 Welcomes World-renowned Watchmakers

Watches and Wonders Geneva 2021 adapts and innovates as, for the first time, some 40 brands join the new watchesandwonders.com platform where they will reveal, live online, their latest releases for 2021.

26/03/2021

Dubai's practical solutions for fine dining at home

People in Dubai are getting a taste for eating at home. We explore the rise in meal delivery kits and meals subscription services in the city.

23/12/2020

Dubai trials shared mobility and greener transport solutions to keep the city moving

Dubai is growing as a metropolitan hub and the infrastructure and public transport network has had to expand. The future shared mobility is being trialled in the city, as well as green solutions for residents.

22/12/2020

How is Europe preparing for the return of Chinese tourists?

At least 5 million Chinese tourists a year visited Europe before the COVID-19 crisis and industry professionals are now preparing for their return to the continent.

[FOCUS]

19/11/2020

How Dubai has become one of the most accessible cities in the world

In this episode of Focus, Euronews meets 'people of determination' to find out.

12/11/2020

Uzbekistan's rise as the transport and logistics hub of Central Asia

Focus investigates how this landlocked country is overcoming its geographical challenges and creating new travel corridors.

23/10/2020

E-learning: boosted by the pandemic, where is the teaching method headed?

Focus takes a look at the background to e-learning and how it's working now for students, educators and adults.

11/06/2020

Humanitarian hub plays key role in COVID-19 response

Focus explores Dubai's International Humanitarian City to see the vital role it is playing in the response to COVID-19 and other humanitarian crisis.

08/04/2020

A growing appetite for local, sustainable food produce in the United Arab Emirates

Sustainability and reducing waste are growing trends in many parts of the world and now, so too, is the issue of food security.

THE GLOBAL CONVERSATION

GLOBAL CONVERSATION

Duration: 8 or 20 minutes

Frequency: Monthly / Bi-monthly

Languages: Arabic, English, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Persian, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Turkish

26/03/2021

NATO, China, Russia, Nord Stream 2, US Secretary of State gives the lowdown

US Secretary of State, Antony Blinken, recently visited NATO headquarters in Brussels to renew America's ties with the alliance. He tells us about his reasons for visiting Europe and what relations will look like under the Biden administration.

18/03/2021

Will travel be possible this summer with the EU's Digital Green Certificate?

"No, I do not think that Europe is losing the battle of vaccines. I think there is a lot of noise around the European vaccination programme". Margaritis Schinas, Vice President of the EU Commission, tells all about the Digital Green Certificate, travel and the EU vaccination process.

12/03/2021

Mary Robinson gives her insight on Europe's biggest challenges

"COVID has exacerbated all of the inequalities" - Mary Robinson, chair of the Elders, discusses the pressing issues affecting Europe today.

04/03/2021

Helena Dalli gives the latest on what the EU is doing to tackle inequalities

Inequalities throughout the European Union have been highlighted by the pandemic and in many situations, they have been worsened by it too. But these inequalities also existed before. We talk to Helena Dalli, the EU Commissioner for Equality, to discuss what is being done to tackle them.

15/02/2021

Bill Gates says getting to zero emissions will be 'best thing we've ever done'

"It should be a cause that humanity can come together on. It'll be hard, but if we achieve it, it'll be the best thing we've ever done," says Bill Gates, Co-Chair of the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation and Founder of Breakthrough Energy.

28/01/2021

"Dream Big", how Tony Parker accomplished the impossible

We speak to world-famous basketball player, Tony Parker, about his successful career in the NBA and his future projects to help today's youth.

27/01/2021

Nikos Dendias and Péter Szijjártó break down the EU's pending issues

EU Foreign Ministers met to discuss some of the bloc's most pressing issues on Monday. We talk to the Hungarian and Greek foreign ministers about potential sanctions on Russia, vaccines, Turkish relations and much more.

15/12/2020

What's ahead for the EU on trade and finances?

Euronews correspondent, Meabh McMahon, speaks to the EU commissioner for financial services, financial stability and Capital Markets Union, Mairead McGuinness, to discuss Brexit, the COVID recovery plan and the banking union.

03/12/2020

EU will lose supremacy unless it invests more, diplomacy chief tells Euronews

"If you intend to be autonomous, you have to pay your own expenses," the EU's High Representative for Foreign Affairs told Euronews Brussels Correspondent Ana Lazaro Bosch in The Global Conversation.

25/11/2020

Brexit: Taoiseach hopeful of EU-UK deal but says trust has eroded

In this episode of Global Conversation, Euronews speaks to the Irish Prime Minister Micheál Martin.

17/11/2020

World Economic Forum founder says Joe Biden 'will boost multilateralism'

In this episode of Global Conversation, Euronews speaks to Professor Klaus Schwab, founder and executive chairman of the World Economic Forum.

12/11/2020

Barroso: after Biden's election, it would be 'absurd' if there is no EU-UK Brexit Deal

In this episode of Global Conversation, José Manuel Barroso speaks to Euronews.

27/10/2020

Moldova is at a crossroads. It either becomes a functional state - or it fails.'

In this edition of Global Conversation, I spoke to her about Moldova's situation and her candidacy.

14/10/2020

Denis Mukwege's 20-year stand against sexual violence in DRC

Dr Denis Mukwege spoke to Euronews about the impact the Covid-19 pandemic had on the work of the Bukavu-based Panzi Hospital and the Panzi Foundation.

09/10/2020

"We are women. We are strong." - Belarusian opposition leader promises to fight until victory

The leader of Belarus's opposition movement speaks to Euronews.

02/10/2020

European Commission widens its horizons in crackdown on corruption and abuse of law

Věra Jourová has just presented the Commission's first-ever Rule of Law report. She spoke to Euronews about their findings.

26/09/2020

European Union's proposed new migration pact generates dissatisfaction on all sides

The EU's proposed new pact on migration has generated dissatisfaction on all sides of the debate.

25/08/2020

Volodymyr Zelenskyy: 'high chance' of ending war in Ukraine 'this year'

It has been just over a year since Volodymyr Zelenskyy surprised the world by winning a landslide victory in Ukraine's presidential election.

16/07/2020

Europe's cities should take lead on environmental change, says Lyon's first Green mayor

Europe's leading cities should form a network to influence environmental policy across the continent, the new mayor of Lyon has told Euronews.

06/07/2020

Laura Codruta Kövesi: Corruption exists in almost all countries

European Commission Vice President Margaritis Schinas talks to the Global Conversation about the future of the EU's border-free travel Schengen zone.

18/06/2020

COVID-19 is an opportunity for economic structural change, says Eurogroup chief Centeno

Eurogroup President Mário Centeno speaks to Euronews' Isabel da Silva about the rescue measures he and other eurozone finance chiefs are taking to tackle the economic havoc caused by COVID-19.

16/06/2020

China's rise makes transatlantic bond 'even more important', warns NATO chief

In this episode of The Global Conversation Euronews' Darren McCaffrey speaks to NATO Secretary-General Jens Stoltenberg about a host of issues.

11/06/2020

Coronavirus: "There will be enough financial firepower to cope," insists EU's budget chief

The Global Conversation speaks to Europe's Budget chief, Johannes Hann.

20/05/2020

Coronavirus: no "mini-Schengens", warns EU chief

European Commission Vice President Margaritis Schinas talks to the Global Conversation about the future of the EU's border-free travel Schengen zone.

07/05/2020

Coronavirus exacerbating "disordered world" warns EU's top diplomat

In an exclusive interview with Euronews, the EU's foreign policy chief Josep Borrell discusses a host of issues, including Europe's diplomatic ties with China, the US and the global impact of Covid-19.

10/04/2020

UNHCR warns social and economic consequences of pandemic may be worse than health impact

The UN High Commissioner for Refugees has told Euronews he fears the social and economic impact of the COVID-19 pandemic could be worse than its health consequences.

09/04/2020

Coronavirus: an unprecedented challenge to democracy?

The coronavirus pandemic has plunged Europe into crisis-mode again. How the bloc responds to the emergency is being closely scrutinised.

07/04/2020

"We're all in a war against COVID-19 together"

The European Union has found itself at the epicenter of the coronavirus pandemic, pushing health systems to the limit and leaving the continent on lockdown.

03/04/2020

"No single country will be left behind in this crisis" says EU Commissioner for Internal Market

Those were the words of the man at the heart of the EU's fight against the coronavirus pandemic, EU Commissioner for Internal Market, Thierry Breton.

27/03/2020

COVID-19 crisis is an 'enormous responsibility' for the EU, Italy's Luigi Di Maio tells Euronews

For Global Conversation, Italy's Foreign Secretary Luigi Di Maio told Euronews about the country's response to the crisis.

25/03/2020

We need a 'war economy' to deal with COVID-19 crisis, UN chief Antonio Guterres tells Euronews

Euronews interviewed the UN secretary-general, in which he called for a clear and coordinated global response to the coronavirus crisis.

05/03/2020

EU's youngest commissioner on how to turn climate crisis around

Commissioner for Environment, Oceans and Fisheries Virginijus Sinkevičius is launching a new Global Coalition for Biodiversity at World Wild Life Day in Monaco.

SPOTLIGHT

SPOTLIGHT

Duration: 6 minutes

Frequency: Occasional

Languages: Arabic, English, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Persian, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Turkish

12/03/2021

How is life getting back to normal in Fukushima 10 years after the disaster?

The Kato family are farmers in Fukushima, they are one of the groups that suffered the most after the disaster 10 years ago because consumer confidence had collapsed. But now they say they don't see much apprehension over their produce and they're happy to be back home.

12/03/2021

Experts say Fukushima "is a completely different story" to Chernobyl

Authorities behind the scenes of the Fukushima nuclear plant clean-up show where they're at with decommissioning and decontaminating. Experts say it's nothing like Chernobyl.

09/03/2021

10 years of decontamination - How the Japanese are handling Fukushima

10 years ago, the Fukushima Daiichi nuclear power plant, one of the largest in the world, was partially destroyed by a tsunami. Many inhabitants fled and a race against the clock to decommission and decontaminate began. But what's it like today?

04/01/2021

How Japan is using technology to make us feel closer during the COVID-19 pandemic

Japan has been a world leader in electronics for decades. And this is proving valuable to help the country tackle the communication issues the Covid-19 pandemic has created, and solve the problem of isolation.

SPOTLIGHT

22/12/2020

Japan keeps culture alive during the pandemic

We take a look at the ways Japan is getting its traditional theatre performances known as Kabuki out to audiences during the pandemic. Then we go for a stroll to an open-air art festival specially adapted to COVID times.

15/12/2020

How Japan is assisting foreigners during the COVID-19 pandemic

Across the world, people are adjusting to the 'new COVID-19 normal'. The economic and social landscape in Japan, as elsewhere, looks very different now. We look at how Japan is facing the challenges of life during a pandemic through the stories of people on the ground.

14/07/2020

How Hong Kong used homegrown tech to fight COVID-19

The first port of call was Hong Kong International Airport, which mobilised people - and robots - to stop that virus dead in its tracks.

13/07/2020

Reconstruction Games' - Olympics in Japan helping to transform region

Spotlight takes a look into Japan's 'Reconstruction Games' - the name being given by residents there to the Olympic and Paralympic Games, taking place in Tokyo next summer.

07/07/2020

Hong Kong's new business and cultural normal

As the world struggles with the coronavirus pandemic, Spotlight explores how Hong Kong's start-up and cultural scenes are thriving through a hybrid of on and offline events.

29/06/2020

Welcoming the world: Japan's Olympic Host Towns

Spotlight takes a look at the cities and towns across Japan fostering cultural exchanges with the rest of the world.

unreported europe

UNREPORTED EUROPE

Duration: 4 minutes

Frequency: Monthly

Languages: Arabic, English, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Persian, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Turkish

16/04/2021

Residents of Bucharest's crumbling buildings live in fear of earthquake threat

Bucharest is the EU capital that is most at risk from earthquakes, many seismologists believe. And with hundreds of vulnerable old buildings suffering from decades of neglect, many residents of the Romanian capital are living in fear for their lives.

09/04/2021

What is 'survivalism' and why is it getting so popular in Spain?

Survivalists or so-called 'preppers' have long been bracing for disaster. It appears that the Covid-19 pandemic has given this secretive community a boost. But is it an outdoor hobby, a fringe discipline or a prudent strategy for self-preservation?

02/04/2021

Stuck between freedom and health, Sardinia's COVID-19 dilemma

Italy is back in lockdown as it battles another wave of COVID-19. This decision is a controversial one in Sardinia where they are successfully managing the virus.

19/03/2021

Limited access to COVID vaccines for Europe's poor: the case of Moldova

Moldova will receive 20% of the country's total COVID-19 vaccine needs through the WHO's co-sponsored COVAX programme. But many more are needed and negotiations with manufacturers are proving to be difficult.

12/03/2021

Plans to build an airport in Albania threatens migrating bird flyways

The mayor of Vlora in Albania sees his region as the "future queen of the Mediterranean" and he's happy for infrastructural development to increase tourism. But plans to build an airport in an environmentally protected area are leaving bird experts horrified.

05/03/2021

Hungarian mayors battle government over finances

Opposition mayors in Eastern Europe are raising their voices against corruption and populism. We take a look at Hungary where they're accusing the central government of deliberate financial cuts to opposition-led municipalities.

19/02/2021

Illegal landfill sites along rivers in the Balkans are causing an ecology disaster

Unreported Europe takes a look at how rubbish is ending up in rivers in Bosnia & Herzegovina, Serbia, and Montenegro. Environmentalists have condemned this situation, which has been happening for the last 25 years.

12/02/2021

The unheard pain of abortion in Poland

A recent ruling by Poland's Constitutional Tribunal has made its already tough abortion law even stricter. On Unreported Europe we take a look at the implications of this law on those most affected by it.

05/02/2021

How can we resolve the migration mismanagement in Bosnia and Herzegovina?

Euronews' Hans von der Brelie speaks to the Head of the Delegation of the European Union to Bosnia and Herzegovina, Johann Sattler, in Sarajevo to discuss the migration mismanagement there.

05/02/2021

No way forward, no way back: the nightmare of migrants trapped in Bosnia

Unreported Europe looks into the living conditions of economic migrants stuck in Bosnia desperately trying to get into the EU.

29/01/2021

Is the pandemic fuelling cyber-addiction in young people?

Experts have noticed an increase in cyber-addiction in young people since the start of the pandemic. What is real cyber-addiction and can we do anything about it?

22/01/2021

From vaccine creation to trepidation: France's struggle with anti-vaxxers

France has one of western Europe's highest rates of distrust in modern-day vaccines. On Unreported Europe we take a look at why, what anti-vaxxers have to say and what can bring sceptics rounds.

15/01/2021

Drugs, addicts and dealers: an underworld adapting to a pandemic

The COVID-19 pandemic has turned logistics and supply-chains upside down for both legal and illicit trade. In this episode of Unreported Europe, we look at how drug addicts are getting their fix and how dealers are bypassing pandemic restrictions.

15/01/2021

Has the illegal drug trade outsmarted a pandemic?

Andrew Cunningham, an expert on illegal drug markets, Crime and Supply Reduction, gives Euronews his insight into how the illegal drug trade is being changed by the pandemic.

08/01/2021

Pain, anger and hope, the toll of the COVID-19 pandemic in Bergamo

Bergamo was once the epi-centre of the COVID-19 pandemic in Europe. We talk to those who were on the frontline about their loss, anger and hope.

18/12/2020

Samuel Paty: A murder showing the cracks in European society

The murder of school teacher, Samuel Paty, at the hands of an Islamist terrorist shocked France. But the repercussions of this crime and how it reflects European society have opened wounds that no one knows how to heal.

unreported europe

11/12/2020

New poverty hits Europe

In this edition of Unreported Europe, we look at how Spain and Austria have been affected by the 'new poverty' created by the pandemic. We speak to people whose lives have been turned upside by the virus.

04/12/2020

Psychiatric trauma: the hidden toll of the Covid Pandemic

On the frontline with healthcare professionals seeking to tackle the psychiatric damage being caused by both the pandemic and the lockdowns it has provoked.

27/11/2020

Sins of the fathers: Ireland's sex abuse survivors

Unreported Europe speaks to those who survived the paedophile priests and examines if the church has truly taken responsibility for the scandal.

20/11/2020

Will women ever win the race to equality in sport?

In this episode of Unreported Europe, Euronews speaks to some women in the industry about how they were discriminated against because of their gender.

13/11/2020

Romania's coal-black heartland embraces Europe's Green New Deal

Romania's industrial Jiu Valley has been tied to fluctuations in the fortunes of coal for a century and a half.

30/10/2020

Trump or Biden: what the outcome of the US election might mean for trade with the EU

Unreported Europe investigates how the outcome of the upcoming election may affect tariffs and taxes which have flown in either direction during the last four years.

23/10/2020

QAnon in Europe: How the COVID pandemic helped promote a dangerous conspiracy theory

Unreported Europe looks into who they are - and why many experts feel the phenomenon is too dangerous to be ignored.

25/09/2020

Surrogacy - parenthood at any cost? The emotional and financial price

Released last April on social media networks, a video of dozens of babies sparked an international outcry - and reignited the surrogacy debate.

18/09/2020

The Netherlands must reduce carbon emissions by the end of the year, but can this be done?

The Netherlands were forced to speed up climate protection measures to comply with a court ruling - which affirmed that the country must be emitting 25% less CO2 by the end of 2020.

11/09/2020

The debate over 5G in Switzerland

The prospect of adverse effects of wireless radiation on the human body has sparked fears about 5G technology in Switzerland.

24/07/2020

Racial police violence: the French perspective

In the wake of the death of George Floyd while in the hands of the US police in May, protests echoed across Europe, denouncing racial violence committed by police forces.

17/07/2020

Hydro power to the people: the fight against Bosnia and Herzegovina's hydroelectric dams

The development of hydroelectric dams in the Western Balkans is creating a flood of debate.

unreported europe

17/07/2020

Invisible workers: Underpaid, exploited and put at risk on Europe's farms

They toil away for hours on end, under blazing sunshine or drenching rain, to cultivate and harvest the fruits and vegetables we so easily take for granted.

10/07/2020

Italian mafia groups are cashing in on COVID-19 by exploiting the social and economic crisis

Unreported Europe went to Scampia, one of the most disadvantaged neighbourhoods in Naples, to find out more.

03/07/2020

COVID-19 pandemic puzzle: tracing the origins of the new coronavirus

In this episode of Unreported Europe, Jeremy Wilks investigates the mysterious origins of COVID-19 and asks whether we should start preparing for future pandemics.

26/06/2020

Prostitution and the pandemic: Amsterdam's sex workers' struggle to survive under lockdown

In this episode of Unreported Europe, Euronews' Valerie Gauriat travels to Amsterdam to meet those working in the city's sex industry.

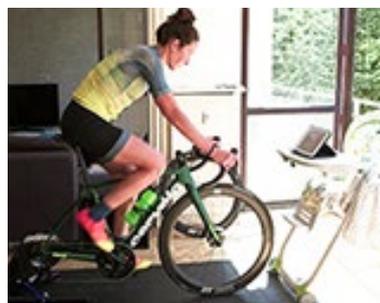

19/06/2020

Europe's ailing airlines: the cabin crew and customers paying the price

In this episode of Unreported Europe, we meet the airline staff and passengers paying the price for the financial crisis engulfing the aviation industry following the coronavirus pandemic.

12/06/2020

Hopes and dreams on hold: the impact of COVID-19 on niche sports

In this episode of Unreported Europe Euronews' Rodrigo Barbosa explores how the coronavirus has hit the careers of three high level athletes.

unreported europe

05/06/2020

"He hit me with an axe handle": Europe's lockdowns lead to a surge in domestic violence

Unreported Europe examines how the lockdown has led to a surge in domestic violence.

29/05/2020

Coronavirus blues: the musicians struggling to make ends meet under lockdown

Unreported Europe meets musicians and artists struggling to make ends meet under lockdown restrictions.

22/05/2020

Homeless under lockdown: the forgotten faces of France's coronavirus nightmare

Euronews' Valerie Gauriat reports on the desperate plight of refugees, asylum seekers and migrants in France as the country emerges from lockdown.

15/05/2020

Unmasking the coronavirus fraudsters

Unreported Europe unmasks the scams criminals are turning to during the COVID-19 pandemic.

08/05/2020

The deadly impact of Covid-19 on Europe's care homes

Unreported Europe explores the devastating impact of the coronavirus on the continent's care home sector.

01/05/2020

Inside Europe's secret truck war: drivers pay the price for east-west divide

There are 3 million truck drivers on the roads of Europe, delivering everything from food and furniture, to cars and concrete.

24/04/2020

Find out why Poland's pig farmers are concerned about their livelihoods

COVID-19 is not the only virus causing problems in Europe, there's also African Swine Fever, ASF, which is a disease transmitted from wild boar to farmed pigs.

17/04/2020

Coronavirus: French farm producers suffering from COVID-19 restrictions

Coronavirus: French farm producers suffering from COVID-19 restrictions

14/04/2020

Survivors of coronavirus on their experience - and their new perspective

Throughout the world, the coronavirus death toll is continuing to rise. But many of those who became infected have survived and gone on to make a full recovery.

07/04/2020

Racing for a cure: where are we with COVID-19 vaccines and treatments?

As the world grapples with the pandemic, the scientific community is on the hunt for effective, scalable treatments, while developing a safe and tested vaccine.

BUSINESS

Business Angola looks at Angola's economic potential, speaking with local entrepreneurs, industry giants, start-ups in various sectors, exploring the diverse economic challenges the country faces.

p 57-58

Ocean covers topics related to the ocean in all its aspects; marine life, sustainable fishing, the blue economy, pollution, ocean energy and so on.

p 59-60

Highlighting the passion, dedication and expertise that goes into producing some of Spain's finest food.

p 61-62

Target's aim is unwavering and direct: to get to the heart of what matters in business. When it comes to economic analysis, Euronews is always on Target.

p 63-64

BUSINESS ANGOLA

BUSINESS ANGOLA

Duration: 5 minutes

Frequency: Occasional

Languages: Arabic, English, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Persian, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Turkish

21/04/2021

How local resources are helping Angola overcome economic challenges

How is Angola overcoming its economic challenges? Euronews finds out in this week's edition of Business Angola.

24/03/2021

The staycations boosting business in Angola

Entrepreneurs in Angola are particularly agile and innovative. Meet two such businessmen making the most out of travel restrictions to develop products for the domestic market, which had previously been imported.

17/03/2021

The mining industry in Angola, no longer a diamond in the rough

Angola is creating a new diamond development hub in the mining province of Lunda Sul, creating jobs, investment and specialist careers.

17/02/2021

How one farm in Angola was successfully created during the COVID-19 pandemic

Business Angola takes a look at how one farm has managed to boom during a health crisis and is already looking to expand its fruit crop exports within just a few months.

BUSINESS
ANGOLA

09/09/2021

How Covid-19 is accelerating
business
digitalisation in Angola

In this episode of Business Angola, Euronews discovers how Covid-19 is accelerating business digitalisation in Angola.

05/11/2020

How innovation in Angola is helping its economy thrive
despite Covid-19

In this week's Business Angola, Euronews' Serge Rombi finds out how Angola has managed to protect its economy during the coronavirus health pandemic.

DISRUPTED

DISRUPTED

Duration: 4 minutes

Frequency: Occasional

Languages: Arabic, English, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Persian, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Turkish

02/04/2021

This entrepreneur says AI can take better care of your health

Dr Loubna Bouarfa, CEO of AI healthcare company, Okra, describes her vision of what our health could look like in the future with Artificial Intelligence on our side.

18/02/2021

Accenture CEO on redesigning business for a sustainable, digital future.

Disrupted speaks with Jean-Marc Ollagnier, CEO of Accenture about the art of looking forward and anticipating changes.

14/01/2021

Ilham Kadri: the Moroccan-French businesswoman who wants to revolutionise the chemicals industry

Ilham Kadri is a scientist and the CEO of global chemicals company Solvay, her mandate, is to set Solvay firmly on the path of sustainability whilst ensuring profitability.

10/12/2020

Bertrand Piccard is looking for 1,000 environmental ideas that make money: and he's almost done it

Isabelle Kumar chats to Bertrand Piccard, the inventor, adventurer and eco-warrior about how he's helping to make the planet a greener place.

DISRUPTED

05/11/2020

Sustainable, inclusive
motorsport?
Alejandro Agag says he has the answer

Disrupted speaks to Alejandro Agag, whose career trajectory has taken him from politics in his native Spain to Formula 1 racing - and then on to being a fully-fledged environmental activist.

Here we grow

GROWERS MAKERS CREATORS

HERE WE GROW
Duration: 5 minutes
Frequency: Occasional
Languages: Arabic, English, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Persian, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Turkish

22/10/2020

Exploring Valencia's abundant - and special - fruits and vegetables

In Valencia on Spain's Mediterranean coast, Here We Grow explores a garden with 400 varieties of citrus fruits and also the persimmon harvest. We discover the bountiful universe of Spain's abundant and delicious fruits and vegetables.

15/10/2020

The organic wines of Spain restoring the ancient rhythms of production

For this episode of Here We Grow, Euronews visited Castile, one of the most important organic wine-producing regions in Spain.

08/10/2020

Spain's 11 - The iconic delicacies that make Spanish cuisine so special

Valencia's famous Mercat Central is one of the largest fresh produce markets in Europe.

01/10/2020

Exploring Camino de Santiago's ancient wine trail

For this episode of Here We Grow, Euronews visited the area to discover some of the best wineries.

Here we grow

GROWERS - MAKERS - CREATORS

24/09/2020

The delicious, hidden gems of Spain's 'cheese revolution'

In this episode of Here We Grow, Euronews meets some of Spain's leading cheesemakers and specialists.

17/09/2020

The celebrated wines of Spain - and the unique regions that create them

In this episode of Here We Grow, I went on a journey to find out more about the traditions and history of winemaking in Spain, one of the world's biggest - and most diverse - producers.

10/09/2020

Galicia's seafood producers and innovators reveal their marine flavours

In this episode, we travelled around the region meeting some of its most sustainable and innovative seafood producers. From the coastal area of A Coruña to Rias Baixas in Pontevedra.

target

TARGET

Duration: 4 minutes

Frequency: Regularly

Languages: Arabic, English, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Persian, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Turkish

05/04/2021

What makes Dubai the 'City of Gold'?

Dubai's reputation as a leader in the gold market happened decades ago. Since then the gold industry has seen tremendous growth thanks to the city's increasing role as a hub for trade and tourism.

16/12/2020

How Dubai is making retirement easier for foreign nationals

Dubai has long been a destination for expatriates, but lately there's been a growing trend towards residents choosing to stay for longer. September 2018 saw the creation of a renewable five-year retirement visa that came into effect a year later.

27/11/2020

Dubai's growing Islamic Economy

In this episode, Target talks to industry insiders hoping to position Dubai as a regional hub.

16/09/2020

Gauging the impact of the global pandemic on the Real Estate market in Dubai

While there's no avoiding that the sector has been impacted by Covid-19 here in Dubai, the market has had - and continues to have - some unexpectedly positive results.

02/07/2020

The price of influence: why brands increasingly favour influencer marketing

Target looks at how influencers are turning the world of marketing and PR on its head.

22/05/2020

Coronavirus: UAE moves to mitigate economic fallout

In this episode, Target looks at what the UAE is doing to cushion the economic fallout caused by the coronavirus pandemic.

06/03/2020

How are FinTech Start-ups transforming our relationship with money?

Financial technology, or FinTech, is the driving force behind it and it is transforming our relationship with money.

NATURE

Ocean covers topics related to the ocean in all its aspects; marine life, sustainable fishing, the blue economy, pollution, ocean energy and so on.

p 66-68

How can we make our food chain truly sustainable? From cutting pesticides in farming and improving animal welfare standards, to processing, packaging, and avoiding food waste, Farm to Fork reports on inspiring initiatives and success stories across Europe.

p 69-70

OCEAN

OCEAN

Duration: 5 minutes

Frequency: Monthly

Languages: Arabic, English, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Persian, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Turkish

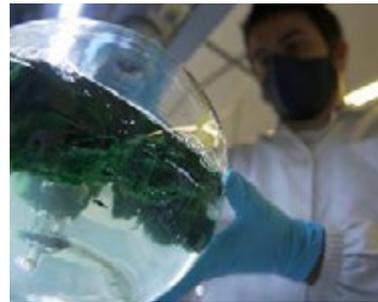

30/03/2021

The ocean, a source of treatment for some of the world's worst diseases

The ocean could hold the cure to the worst threats to public health. Researchers and experts are using some of the most unknown marine bioresources to make compounds to improve our health and they're doing so without damaging the sea.

30/03/2021

The ocean's microalgae and cyanobacteria: potential cures for disease

Some cyanobacteria and microalgae have existed in the oceans for more than 3.5 billion years and they may hold the key to defeating some of humanity's deadliest diseases.

23/02/2021

Protecting the sea gives glimmer of hope to fish stocks in the Adriatic

Fish stocks in the Mediterranean Sea have dropped to alarming levels due to decades of overfishing. Coastal states fear an impending collapse of fisheries. But in a protected part of the Adriatic Sea between Croatia and Italy, fish populations are recovering. Is this the solution?

27/01/2021

What's the catch to the EU's fishing policies?

How is the EU making sure that fish and seafood are caught in a sustainable way that protects the marine environment? Let's take a look at initiatives helping with traceability, quality and lowering illegal fishing.

OCEAN

26/01/2021

Sea to plate: how the EU is stopping any fishy business in our oceans

How much do we know about the fish we eat? Find out more about the complex journey fish take to get to your plate and how the EU is ensuring its quality and safety on this edition of Ocean.

22/12/2020

European producers are making pollution- free aquaculture a successful business

Among all European countries, Ireland is the leader in clean aquaculture, producing around 30 thousand tons of organically certified fish and shellfish every year, meanwhile, Hungary produces as much organic seafood as France or Denmark.

27/11/2020

What are offshore renewables? And how do they work?

In a world increasingly affected by climate change, burning fossil fuels is no longer a long-term option. Thankfully, the natural world around us offers plenty of opportunities for clean, renewable energy. The ocean is one of them.

24/11/2020

What will the future of energy in Europe look like?

In this episode of Ocean, Euronews meets those working at some of the major new industrial sites to find out more.

21/10/2020

The dangers of marine litter - and the innovative methods to combat it

As part of Euronews' Green Tomorrow initiative, our search for innovative technology to combat marine litter has taken us to the Croatian island of Lošinj.

29/09/2020

How Europe is turning to tech to help clean up the shipping industry

In this episode of Ocean, Euronews explores what changes are being made in the industry to try and cut carbon dioxide emissions.

OCEAN

01/09/2020

Fishermen in Poland fear for their jobs as cod numbers decline

In this edition of Ocean, Euronews meets those who have been directly affected by the cod fishing ban - and explores why its stocks are in decline.

28/07/2020

Are Europe's anglers threatening vulnerable species?

As COVID restrictions are lifted in some places, millions of Europe's anglers are able to go fishing again.

09/06/2020

Seaweed farming: an economic and sustainable opportunity for Europe

Ocean explores Europe's growing seaweed sector meeting the farmers trying to put the industry on the map.

19/05/2020

Coronavirus: supporting Europe's battered fishing industry

In this episode of Ocean Euronews' Denis Loctier meets French fisherman trying to survive the crisis and explores how Europe is supporting the battered sector.

31/03/2020

What's killing our underwater ecosystems?

According to UNESCO, without significant change more than half of the world's marine species may stand on the brink of extinction by the end of this century.

FARM TO FORK

MAKING OUR FOOD SUSTAINABLE

FARM TO FORK
Duration: 4 minutes
Frequency: Occasional
Languages: Arabic, English, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Persian, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Turkish

11/05/2021

The sustainable farming methods helping farmers earn a fair income

The fruit and vegetable auction in Sint-Katelijne-Waver, Belgium is one of the most major auctions of its kind in Europe.

21/04/2021

How sustainable farms in Italy are improving animal welfare and our food systems

In this episode of 'Farm to Fork,' we look at examples of sustainable farming in Europe.

13/04/2021

Saving food to save the planet: European initiatives take on food waste

Almost a third of the food produced worldwide goes to waste. That's equivalent to around 1.3 billion tonnes.

30/03/2021

Technology, agriculture's friend for the sustainable farms of the future

How can European agriculture become more eco-friendly and guarantee a healthy, profitable production?

16/03/2021

Meet the EU farmers using fewer pesticides to make agriculture greener

Modern agriculture faces two big challenges today: an increased global demand for food and the need to grow crops more sustainably.

euronews.

2021 VOD Catalogue

For any additional questions you may have,
please contact:

distribution@euronews.com